From The Preacher's Pen REJECTING CHRIST

[Adapted from an article written by brother Dennis "Skip" Francis, preacher for the Grant Street church of Christ, Liberal, KS.]

Jesus plainly connected rejecting His words with rejecting Him. Jesus states, "he that rejecteth Me, and receiveth not My words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day" (John 12:48). Jesus also appealed to the words of Moses – "For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed Me: for he wrote of Me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe My words" (John 5:46-47). The plain truth is that rejection of Jesus' teachings are also a rejection of Him. Too often men seek to be "believers" without knowing much about He Whom they claim to believe in. They even go so far as to place the Bible in the same category as other literature of our day. They deny its inspiration, or deny that it is inspired in its every word. Some have even suggested that it contains no more inspiration than that which Shakespeare was inspired to write in "Romeo and Juliet." The sad truth is that some of these men are not only "theologians," some of them are preachers in the Lord's church. The inerrant, verbally inspired, and unchanging word of God testifies of itself. In 2 Samuel 23:3, David states, "The Spirit of the Lord spoke by men, and His word was on my tongue." Peter also said, "knowing this first, that no prophecy of scripture is of any private interpretation, for prophecy never came by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit" (2 Peter 1:20-21). Peter states the same principle that David did, that the Holy Spirit was the One who spoke; it was the men who moved. This is not human inspiration, it is Godly inspiration – and it defies human understanding or definition. Peter told us that we were "born again, not of corruptible seed but incorruptible, through the word of God which lives and abides forever" (1 Peter 1:23). It is Jesus' words that brought about our rebirth and His words that will judge us. Let us not be in danger of rejecting Christ by rejecting His words..

The Gospel Plan of Salvation

- HEAR the word of God; the Bible (Romans 10:17)
- BELIEVE the word of God and that Jesus is Lord (John 8:24; Hebrews 11:6)
- REPENT of sin (Acts 17:30)
- CONFESS that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God (Matthew 10:32-33)
- BE BAPTIZED in order to receive remission of sins (Acts 2:38); in order to have past sins washed away (Acts 22:16); in order to get into the body of Christ, the church (Romans 6:3-4; Acts 2:47); in order to be saved (Mark 16:15-16; 1 Peter 3:21)
- LIVE FAITHFULLY in accordance with God's word (1 John 1:6-9; Revelation 2:10)
