“NOT ALL ‘BELIEVERS’ ARE CHRISTIANS”

[This article is written by brother Jerry C. Brewer]

Merely believing in Jesus Christ does not make one a Christian. If that were the case, the devils would be Christians (Jas. 2:19).

While it's true that in order to be a Christian, one must believe in Jesus Christ, mere belief doesn't make one a Christian. One must be a man in order to be a husband, but not all men are husbands.

As surely as the Bible is the word of God, there are millions of people who think they are Christians when they are not. There are multiplied millions who believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, but they aren't saved because they haven't obeyed Him (Heb. 5:8-9). Just believing and/or saying that Christ is the Saviour doesn't make one a Christian.

On the day of Pentecost, the Jews cried out, "Men and brethren what shall we do?" (Acts 2:37). They believed Christ is God's Son through Peter's preaching, but they were not saved until they did what Christ commanded them through the inspired apostle. He told them to, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins" (Acts 2:38). When 3,000 of them did that in obedience to the divine command, they were added to the church of Christ (Acts 2:41, 47).

One cannot be a Christian without believing that Jesus Christ is the Son of God who came down from the Father (John 8:19-25). One cannot be a Christian by simply believing Jesus was a "good man." To be saved (which is to become a Christian), one must believe that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, repent of his sins, confess his belief that Christ is God's Son, and be baptized into Christ for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38; 8:37; Mark 16:16; 1 Pet. 3:21).

Do you believe Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God? If you do, you are not far from the kingdom. You need only to repent of your sins, confess your faith in Him, and be baptized in order to become a Christian.

“BEING A SERVANT”

[This article is written by brother John Rose]

It was no accident that the Lord was the greatest servant to ever walk upon the earth. Being a servant was His purpose in coming to this sin ravaged world. Paul, the great servant of the Christ wrote concerning Him, "But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men" (Phi. 2:7). Jesus had said the same previously, "For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many" (Mark 10:45). The Savior also said He came to seek and save the lost (Luke 19:10). This same humility and service He requires of all for He admonished all in saying, "If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you" (John 13:14-15).

In the same is true happiness, "If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them" (John 13:17).
